

Processing of Personal Information of MHA Residents and Tenants

Thank you for taking the time to read our privacy notice.

Methodist Homes (MHA) is a registered charity whose mission is to 'enable people to live later life well'. We recognise the trust you place in us when you share your personal information with us. We are committed to operating with openness, honesty and transparency. This privacy notice provides information about: the personal information that MHA collects about you as a Resident or Tenant; the ways in which your personal information may be used; and your rights.

This Privacy Notice will be updated from time to time. The latest version, and our other privacy notices, can be found on MHA's web site (www.mha.org.uk/PrivacyPolicy). If you have provided preferences for receiving general information about MHA, including fundraising, this will be covered by the 'Supporters Privacy Notice' available at the same link.

We may use additional privacy notices to supplement this notice. We will always bring any additional privacy notice to your attention.

- Photos and videos (S)
- CCTV recordings (P)
- Information required by regulators (risk assessments, accident and incident records) (P)

MHA processes Special Category data in accordance with its Appropriate Policy Document which can be found at www.mha.org.uk/PrivacyPolicy.

3. Processing of Personal Information & Legal Basis

The Legal Basis for this processing is either:

- Contract – privately funded residents: to fulfil the agreement between the resident, or their legal representative, and MHA.
- Legitimate Interest – residents funded by a Local Authority (LA) or Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG): in order for MHA to fulfil the contract with the funding body. MHA may receive from the funding body personal information to help determine if MHA can meet your needs, this may include health and wellbeing information.

MHA will only process the Personal Information:

- To assess your residential and care needs
- To assess your financial situation
- To provide residential and care services

One of MHA's values is to, "nurture mind, body and spirit". To facilitate this MHA's internal care team includes: nurses, carers, chaplains and music therapists.

Promoting MHA with Photos, Videos and Quotes We may use photos, videos and quotes:

- For Publicity, fundraising and advertising materials, including printed publications
- In Presentations and exhibition materials
- On Websites, social media channels and digital communications
- In News media and their associated websites and social media channels including print, television and radio

Personal Photos and Quotes: MHA will ask for your consent to use photos, videos and quotes, in which you are a focal point, taken by staff, professionals or third party agencies on behalf of MHA. MHA may contact you as the 5 year retention period comes to an end to ask for consent to continue using the photos or video.

Group or Event Photos: MHA may take photos during activities or events which include multiple people, where you are not the primary focus. The legal basis for taking these photos is legitimate interest. During such activities or events you will be informed where the photos or filming will take place allowing you to move in or out of camera shot.

Next of Kin and emergency contact details are requested to help protect your vital interest by having points of contact for use only in emergency situations.

Your Views MHA is continuously seeking to improve. To help us in our process we have a legitimate interest to seek feedback and opinions from our residents and their family members. To this end we may occasionally ask you to: complete a survey, take part in a discussion group, or give us your views in another way. If you would rather not be invited to participate please let us know and we will record your desire to opt-out.

Building Maintenance and Utilities MHA may share limited contact information of residents living in our retirement living schemes with building maintenance contractors and utility providers (e.g. gas and electricity providers). The legal basis for this is legitimate interest as we need to ensure that our buildings are maintained and repaired and that utilities are provided.

4. Information Sharing

MHA may share a minimal amount of your Personal Information with:

- Other agencies who may contribute to your care, like GPs, pharmacies and hospitals
- Designated professionals (e.g. care home staff, GPs, social workers, nurses), including Multidisciplinary Teams, to support care and process funding requests.
- The organisation (LA or CCG) for whom we provide the service under a contract.
- People with Power of Attorney, Deputyship or people you have authorised access or when it is in your best interest.
- MHA's insurance company in relation to claims or possible claims.
- When legally required to do so, including regulatory compliance.
- Building maintenance contractors to allow for repairs (Retirement Living Residents)
- Utility providers to aid an easy transition into your new home. You will obviously be free to change your utility provider as and when you desire.

MHA may share your next of kin's contact information with other care professionals if requested.

We will not sell or swap your data with any third parties. We will not share your information with any third party for marketing purposes.

5. Transfers to other countries

MHA will not transfer your information outside of the UK or the European Economic Area.

6. Securing your information

MHA takes our duty to protect your personal information and confidentiality seriously.

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. Access to your personal information is only allowed on a need to know basis. Those with access will only process your personal information as instructed and are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal information breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

7. Retention of Personal Information

MHA will only retain your personal information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements. At the end of the retention period your information will either be securely and confidentially destroyed or anonymized. Anonymization is the process of removing personal information from the data so that it is not possible to identify individuals from the data.
